Annotated Bibliography Entry for [Name and Author of Reading].

Structure Summary:

- Briefly introduce the text and author. State the title, author, and main topic of the piece.
- Outline the main sections and their flow. Identify the key arguments or ideas presented in each section and how they connect to each other.
- Emphasize the organization and logic of the text. Show how the author builds their argument or explores the topic.
- Avoid lengthy details and unnecessary interpretations. Keep it concise and objective, focusing on the structure and content of the text.

Core Argument(s):

- Identify the central thesis or claim of the text. What is the main point the author is trying to make?
- Clearly explain the argument, using your own words but staying true to the author's intent.
- Provide evidence from the text to support your explanation. Quote key passages or summarize significant points that illustrate the argument.
- Avoid oversimplification or misinterpretations. Ensure your explanation captures the nuances and complexities of the author's claim.

Weakness of Core Argument(s):

- Choose a potential limitation or gap in the author's argument. This could be an overlooked counterargument, a lack of evidence, or a theoretical flaw.
- Explain the weakness clearly and objectively. Avoid simply stating it as a fact; provide rationale and supporting evidence from the text or external sources.
- Offer alternative perspectives or points of consideration. This demonstrates your critical thinking and acknowledges the multifaceted nature of the topic.
- Maintain a respectful and balanced tone. While criticizing the argument, avoid personal attacks or devaluing the author's perspective.
