

Name: _____

Question 1: What is the primary focus of PHIL3050: Ethical Theory?

- (a) Examining the history of moral philosophy.
- (b) Exploring the foundations of morality.
- (c) Debating contemporary ethical issues.
- (d) Applying ethical theories to real-world problems.

Question 2: Which of the following is NOT a key skill students are expected to develop in the course?

- (a) Excellence in expository writing.
- (b) Conducting original research in ethics.
- (c) Mastery of annotating.
- (d) Argument analysis.

Question 3: How are students expected to actively participate in the course?

- (a) By attending all lectures and taking notes.
- (b) By contributing to discussions and questioning assumptions.
- (c) By completing all assignments and submitting them on time.
- (d) By independently researching and presenting ethical theories.

Question 4: What is the policy on late submissions of assignments?

- (a) Late submissions are not accepted under any circumstances.
- (b) Late submissions are accepted with a 10% grade deduction per day.
- (c) Late submissions are handled on a case-by-case basis and may not receive full credit.
- (d) Late submissions are accepted without penalty if accompanied by a valid excuse.

Question 5: Where can students find resources and support for academic success and personal well-being?

- (a) The course website.
- (b) The instructor's office hours.
- (c) The university's student support services.
- (d) All of the above.

Question 6: What is the primary way students will demonstrate their learning in the course?

- (a) Through active participation in class discussions.
- (b) Through the completion of a comprehensive final exam.
- (c) Through a variety of assignments, including annotated notes, argument reconstructions, and exams.
- (d) Through independent research and presentation of an ethical theory.

Question 7: What is the purpose of the annotated notes assignment?

- (a) To encourage students to take detailed notes during lectures.
- (b) To assess students' ability to critically engage with assigned readings.
- (c) To provide students with an opportunity to express their opinions on ethical theories.
- (d) To prepare students for writing their argument reconstruction papers.

Question 8: What is the format of the Blue Book Exams?

- (a) Multiple-choice questions completed online.
- (b) Essay questions completed in a physical booklet.
- (c) Take-home exams with short-answer questions.
- (d) Open-book exams with problem-solving scenarios.

Question 9: What is the policy on absences due to religious holidays?

- (a) Students are penalized for absences due to religious holidays.
- (b) Students must provide documentation to excuse absences due to religious holidays.
- (c) Students are not penalized if they inform the instructor at least two weeks in advance.
- (d) Students are required to make up any missed work due to religious holidays.

Question 10: What is the course policy on academic integrity?

- (a) Students are encouraged to collaborate on all assignments.
- (b) Students must cite all sources to avoid plagiarism.
- (c) Paraphrasing another author's ideas without citation is acceptable.
- (d) Plagiarism is not considered a serious academic offense.