

Name: _____

Question 1: Which of the following is NOT a required component of the course?

- (a) Midterm Exam
- (b) Final Exam
- (c) Group Project
- (d) Attendance

Question 2: Which of the following best describes the primary focus of the course?

- (a) Exploring different religions and their beliefs about life's meaning.
- (b) Analyzing philosophical arguments about the existence of God.
- (c) Developing critical thinking skills to examine various perspectives on life's purpose.
- (d) Learning about the history of philosophy and its impact on our understanding of life.

Question 3: What are the three main skills students will develop throughout the course?

- (a) Critical thinking, writing, and public speaking.
- (b) Research, analysis, and synthesis.
- (c) Creativity, problem-solving, and communication.
- (d) All of the above.

Question 4: How will students be assessed in the course?

- (a) Midterm exam only
- (b) Final exam only
- (c) A combination of quizzes, assignments, and exams
- (d) Attendance and participation only

Question 5: What is the policy on late work?

- (a) Late work is not accepted under any circumstances.
- (b) Late work is accepted with a penalty of 10% per day up to a maximum of 50%.
- (c) Late work is accepted without a penalty if the student has a valid excuse.
- (d) The instructor's discretion determines the policy on late work.

Question 6: What are the required materials for the course?

- (a) A textbook and a notebook
- (b) A textbook and access to an online learning platform
- (c) A notebook and a pen
- (d) No required materials are necessary.

Question 7: What is the purpose of the Museum Assignment?

- (a) To give students an opportunity to apply their critical thinking skills to real-world situations.
- (b) To expose students to different cultures and perspectives on life.
- (c) To help students develop their writing and research skills.
- (d) All of the above.

Question 8: How does the instructor address student success and accommodations?

- (a) By providing clear expectations and support resources.
- (b) By being available for office hours and answering student questions.
- (c) By creating a welcoming and inclusive learning environment.
- (d) All of the above.

Question 9: What is the policy on absences, and what constitutes an excused absence?

- (a) Absences are not allowed under any circumstances.
- (b) Excused absences are only allowed for medical reasons.
- (c) Excused absences may be granted for various reasons, including illness, family emergencies, and religious observances.
- (d) The instructor's discretion determines the policy on excused absences.

Question 10: How are changes to the course schedule communicated?

- (a) Through announcements in class only
- (b) On the course website
- (c) Via email from the instructor
- (d) Both B and C